[Createspace Independent Pub](http://Createspace Independent Pub) Special Operations Press' standard "Camouflage Cover" version of the 1967 edition of the US Army's Ranger Handbook. Along with the Special Forces Handbook and Special Forces Operational Techniques, the Ranger Handbook was one of the iconic special warfare texts of the Vietnam War era. Not limited to SF and Infantry personnel, the US Army's Ranger Course at the Ranger School at Fort Benning was open to any combat arms personnel whose commanding officers agreed to their attendance. many Officers and NCOs of Infantry, Aviation and artillery units serving in South Vietnam proudly wore the coveted black and gold Ranger Tab and members of the various regular, reserve and National Guard Ranger units performed great work conducting Long Range Reconnaissance Patrols and other Ranger-style tasks. From the Foreword: "This handbook has been compiled for the use of the Ranger student and graduate. The material within has been extracted from lesson plans and field manuals applicable to the Ranger POI (Program of Instruction)". The Ranger Handbook is organized into 32 chapters covering topics as diverse as Ranger training exercises to booby traps to combat survival. It is the ultimate advanced light infantry aide de memoir and many of the topics and techniques are as effective today as they were in the mid to late 1960s. Presented in Special Operations Press' distinctive ERDL cover, denoting a Vietnam-era publication, this edition of the 1967 US Army Ranger Handbook is published warts and all, from mismatched typeface sizing to usually unseen document coding, the only thing missing is the staple binding. Instead, the Handbook is printed in 5 x 8 perfect-bound paperback format. Proudly printed in the USA.

Jeffrey W Bennett This is the latest edition of the US Army's Ranger Handbook. It is packed with information on evasion, survival, communications, watercraft, mountaineering, operations, leadership, communications, tactics, patrols and much more and is an excellent source for Rangers, hunters, world travelers, campers and other extreme adventurers. RANGER CREED Recognizing that I volunteered as a Ranger, fully knowing the hazards of my chosen profession, I will always endeavor to uphold the prestige, honor, and high esprit de corps of the Rangers. Acknowledging the fact that a Ranger is a more elite Soldier who arrives at the cutting edge of battle by land, sea, or air, I accept the fact that as a Ranger my country expects me to move further, faster, and fight harder than any other soldier. Never shall I fail my comrades I will always keep myself mentally alert, physically strong, and morally straight and I will shoulder more than my share of the task whatever it may be, one hundred percent and then some. Gallantly will I show the world that I am a specially selected and well trained Soldier. My courtesy to superior officers, neatness of dress, and care of equipment shall set the example for others to follow. Energetically will I meet the enemies of my country. I shall defeat them on the field of battle for I am better trained and will fight with all my might. Surrender is not a Ranger word. I will never leave a fallen comrade to fall into the hands of the enemy and under no circumstances will I ever embarrass my country. Readily will I display the intestinal fortitude required to fight on to the Ranger objective and complete the mission, though I be the lone survivor. Ranger Creed From SH 21-76 Ranger Handbook Latest version 2017. With improved printing technology we are able to provide this 8.5 x 11 inch book with properly formatted texts, tables and pictures. Easy to read with 10.6 font and with an attractive cover. Made by Army Rangers, for Army Rangers. Centuries of Ranger tactics are behind this edition and now you can get your copy. This is the official ranger handbook. This book is perfect for Army Rangers, Special Forces, survivalists, campers, and adventurers. The Ranger Handbook is also perfect for getting ready for basic training, promotion boards, and more. It's that good. Can you live up to the Ranger Creed? Recognizing that I volunteered as a Ranger, fully knowing the hazards of my chosen profession, I will always endeavor to uphold the prestige, honor, and high esprit de corps of the Rangers.

Acknowledging the fact that a Ranger is a more elite Soldier who arrives at the cutting edge of battle by land, sea, or air, I accept the fact that as a Ranger my country expects me to move further, faster, and fight harder than any other Soldier. Never shall I fail my comrades. I will always keep myself mentally alert, physically strong, and morally straight and I will shoulder more than my share of the task whatever it may be, one hundred percent and then some. Gallantly will I show the world that I am a specially selected and well trained Soldier. My courtesy to superior officers, neatness of dress, and care of equipment shall set the example for others to follow. Energetically will I meet the enemies of my country. I shall defeat them on the field of battle for I am better trained and will fight with all my might. Surrender is not a Ranger word. I will never leave a fallen comrade to fall into the hands of the enemy and under no circumstances will I ever embarrass my country. Readily will I display the intestinal fortitude required to fight on to the Ranger objective and complete the mission, though I be a lone survivor.

The history of the American Ranger is a long and colorful saga of courage, daring, and outstanding leadership. It is a story of men whose skills in the art of fighting have seldom been surpassed. Only the highlights of their numerous exploits are told here. Rangers mainly performed defensive missions until, during King Phillip's War in 1675, Benjamin Church's Company of Independent Rangers (from Plymouth Colony) conducted successful raids on hostile Indians. In 1756, Major Robert Rogers, of New Hampshire, recruited nine companies of American colonists to fight for the British during the French and Indian War. Ranger techniques and methods of operation inherently characterized the American frontiersmen. Major Rogers was the first to capitalize on them and incorporate them into the fighting doctrine of a permanently organized fighting force. The method of fighting used by the first Rangers was further developed during the Revolutionary War by Colonel Daniel Morgan, who organized a unit known as "Morgan's Riflemen." According to General Burgoyne, Morgan's men were "... the most famous corps of the Continental Army, all of them crack shots." Francis Marion, the "Swamp Fox," organized another famous Revolutionary War Ranger element known as "Marion's Partisans." Marion's Partisans, numbering anywhere from a handful to several hundred, operated both with and independent of other elements of General Washington's Army. Operating out of the Carolina swamps, they disrupted British communications and prevented the organization of loyalists to support the British cause, substantially contributing to the American victory. The American Civil War was again the occasion for the creation of special units such as Rangers. John S. Mosby, a master of the prompt and skillful use of cavalry, was one of the most outstanding Confederate Rangers. He believed that by resorting to aggressive action he could compel his enemies to guard a hundred points. He would then attack one of the weakest points and be assured numerical superiority.
